	There are so many ways to get the news. Write and submit an editorial on why newspapers are still relevant.	Identify as many sets of antonyms, homonyms and synonyms as you can in the newspaper.	How is the economy doing? Look for articles about what is being spent on holiday gifts this season.	Make a list of all states mentioned in the newspaper over a 4-week period. How many states did you find?	It's been a crazy weather year; tornadoes, floods, hurricanes, heat domes and more. What is being predicted for 2025?

	Find examples of editorials that are written to inform, entertain, influence or interpret the news for the reader.	The Winter Solstice is this week. Write a poem about it with words found in your local newspaper.	Find words and phrases that refer to time, such as solstice, annual, bicentennial, 90-day warranty, etc.	Look for articles about how different cultures celebrate holidays.	Use the newspaper's archives to find science stories from 2014. What seems old but still in use and what is already gone?
