

READ ALL ABOUT IT

Engage your students or children with their local newspaper now and they'll be engaged for life. The Missouri Press Association's Newspapers in Education program offers activities for a variety of disciplines and grade levels.

	Find the name of a female editor or reporter and a comic strip showing a working woman.	Look for adjectives used to describe women and men. Could any be viewed as both positive and negative?	Estimate the number of times an important woman's name will appear in the paper. How close was the estimate?	List all mentions of women political leaders, whether local, state, national or international.	If there are articles about female researchers or scientists, what are their fields of study?

Celebrate National Newspapers in Education Week with us! 	Using articles as a guide, role play and conduct a newspaper style interview, including note taking.	Write an editorial based on a local concern and submit it to the school and local newspaper.	Using newspaper articles about businesses, create a realistic budget with income and expenses for one.	Create a comic strip based on your area's geography or history.	Use science words from the newspaper to create a crossword puzzle.
