

Everybody Loves

Jack

Adam Holms never had a pet until he found a wounded stray dog. But from the moment the dog comes to Adam's house, unusual things begin to happen. As he helps care for the wounded animal, Adam learns about life in the north woods of Minnesota in 1900. He learns there are more than trees in the forest. He also learns that "Everybody Loves Jack."

A Serialized Story for Young Readers

(Begins Date)
(Logo)