

Generations of Missouri

Written by Carolyn Mueller | Illustrated by Philip Goudeau

2022 Newspapers in Education Serial Now Available

The Missouri Press Foundation and the National Newspaper Association Foundation are offering a new original free serial story to newspapers across the country for publication. This year we follow a family through many generations, participating in historic events from 1821 to the present. Chapter 1 is set in 1821, where a young girl and her father join others at the market in St. Louis on the banks of the Mississippi River to watch the announcement of Missouri achieving statehood. Descendants of this family are the main characters in the following chapters, watching or participating in important events that occurred within their lifetimes, including Dred Scott's freedom, the Eads Bridge connecting Illinois to Missouri, the 1904 World's Fair, the 19th Amendment, Churchill's Iron Curtain speech, the Arch Protest, and the Flood of 1993. Each event had national impacts and so will resonate with newspapers across the country. This series will be offered free of charge to newspapers in Missouri and across the country, with publication beginning Jan. 1, 2022 and ending June 30, 2022.
