

Mr. Eads Bridge 2019 Rules for Publication

The Missouri Press Foundation, in a special licensing agreement, is allowing newspapers non-exclusive first serial print rights to “Mr. Eads Bridge” between Jan. 1, 2019 and June 30, 2019.

By publishing “Mr. Eads Bridge,” the newspaper agrees as follows:

1. The story must be printed and distributed within twelve weeks of the final licensing date of June 30, 2019.
2. The newspaper will not make changes in the text, title or appropriate credit lines accompanying each installment without the prior written approval of Missouri Press Foundation and the author. Newspapers may add local sponsorship information.
3. The special license applies only to use of the materials in the print issue of the newspaper, its archived edition of the same date, or on its secure website, not available to the general public for free.
4. This license authorizes one-time publication rights for one newspaper. Additional newspapers owned by the same corporation must contract for their use rights independently by registering the newspaper name at login. The newspaper shall not transfer its license to any other newspaper or entity without the express permission of Missouri Press Foundation.
5. This license shall terminate: (a) if any provision of this agreement is violated, or (b) if the selection should not be published by the newspaper within twelve weeks of the special licensing period – Jan. 1, 2019 and June 30, 2019.

By publishing the story, you agree to the above contractual provisions. Visit <http://mopress.com/nie-serial-stories> for the complete guidelines and information on how to provide the story and guide to your readers.

We again thank the National Newspaper Association Foundation for their generous support of this effort.
