Your newspaper is promoting reading and sharing history in a new serialized story for young readers, “Patriotic Pals, Tails of the Civil War.”

Each chapter in this series highlights pups with a purpose — dog mascots from the Civil War — who participated in or witnessed a fray or major battle.

With a folksy, light-hearted paw, Chuck, a border collie, leads readers on a journey of Civil War battles from a pup’s point of view. Entertaining and educational, “Patriotic Pals” is a heartwarming tale of canine courage and loyalty.
